LA-062

by George Jones
Oil on Canvas, 4' x 5'

Vivid and captivating, Dallas native George H. Jones' large-scale paintings represent his Texas heritage and his love of animals. Painting primarily in oils, Jones often uses a palette knife to create a heavy, 3 dimensional texture that reaches out from the canvas.

Jones has been painting for 40 years and was recently featured on Good Morning Texas, and his work proudly hangs in the private collections of former Vice President Dan Quayle, professional athletes, and in over 20 galleries across North America. Learn more at www.georgejonesart.com.
