

Most military families miss the camaraderie and sense of mission that the military culture provides, making transition to civilian life difficult. Celebrate Recovery and Welcome Home Groups for Veterans can help.

What is Celebrate Recovery?

- A safe place
- A place of belonging
- A place to care for others and be cared for
- Where respect is given to each member
- Where confidentiality is nonnegotiable
- A place to learn
- A place to grow and become stronger
- Where you can take off your mask
- A place for healthy challenges and healthy risks
- A possible turning point in your life

Who can benefit from Welcome Home Groups?

Life after the Military does not always make sense. The loss of a sense of brotherhood and the loss of being part of something important and bigger than ourselves can lead to feelings of frustration, isolation, emptiness, boredom, anger, or loneliness.

Frequently, in an attempt to ease these overwhelming emotions, we will turn to unhealthy relationships, at-risk behaviors, or substance abuse.

How can Celebrate Recovery & Welcome Home help?

Celebrate Recovery is a tool that can help us recapture some of that sense of brotherhood and sense of mission. Every week veterans gather in our Welcome Home group to discuss what is happening in our lives and how we can reach out to other veterans struggling with hurts, hang ups and habits. We utilize a biblically based 12-step program and the strong relationships we form to allow God's work in our lives.

God gives us the ability to come out of the darkness and walk through life with hope. We can start building relationships with others that are healthy. We learn positive tools for coping with frustrations and then incorporate these tools into our lives. Celebrate Recovery cannot make promises but we have helped nearly 4 million people in 29,000 churches around the world to find freedom from their hurts, hang ups and habits. And now there is a Celebrate Recovery group just for veterans led by veterans. Come and join us, what have you got to lose, except some of your hurts hang ups and habits!

Eight Recovery Principles based on the Beatitudes

Principle 1: Realize I'm not God. I admit that I am powerless to control my tendency to do the wrong thing and my life is unmanageable. "Happy are those who know they are spiritually poor." (Matthew 5:3)

Principle 2: Earnestly believe that God exists, that I matter to Him, and that He has the power to help me recover. "Happy are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." (Matthew 5:4)

Principle 3: Consciously choose to commit all my life and will to Christ's care and control. "Happy are the meek." (Matthew 5:5)

Principle 4: Openly examine and confess my faults to God, to myself, and to someone I trust. "Happy are the pure in heart." (Matthew 5:8)

Principle 5: Voluntarily submit to every change God wants to make in my life and humbly ask Him to remove my character defects. "Happy are those whose greatest desire is to do what God requires." (Matthew 5:6)

Principle 6: Evaluate all my relationships. Offer forgiveness to those who have hurt me and make amends for harm I've done to others, except when to do so would harm them or others. "Happy are the merciful." (Matthew 5:7) "Happy are the peacemakers." (Matthew 5:9)

Principle 7: Reserve a daily time with God for self-examination, Bible reading, and prayer in order to know God and His will for my life and to gain the power to follow His will.

Principle 8: Yield myself to God to be used to bring this Good News to others, both by my example and by my words. "Happy are those who are persecuted because they do what God requires." (Matthew 5:10)

12 Steps

and their Biblical Comparisons

1. We admitted we were powerless over our addictions and compulsive behaviors, that our lives had become unmanageable.

"I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature. For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out."

- Romans 7:18

2. We came to believe that a power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.

"For it is God who works in you to will and to act according to his good purpose."

- Philippians 2:13

3. We made a decision to turn our lives and our wills over to the care of God.

"Therefore, I urge you, brothers, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God - this is your spiritual act of worship."

- Romans 12:1

4. We made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.

"Let us examine our ways and test them, and let us return to the Lord."

- Lamentations 3:40

5. We admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.

"Therefore confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so that you may be healed."

- James 5:16

6. We were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.

"Humble yourselves before the Lord, and he will lift you up."

- James 4:10

7. We humbly asked Him to remove all our shortcomings.

"If we confess our sins, he is faithful and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness."

- 1 John 1:9

8. We made a list of all persons we had harmed and became willing to make amends to them all. "Do to others as you would have them do to you."

- Luke 6:3

9. We made direct amends to such people whenever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.

"Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift."

- Matthew 5:23-24

10. We continue to take personal inventory and when we were wrong, promptly admitted it. "So, if you think you are standing firm, be careful that you don't fall!"

- 1 Corinthians 10:12

11. We sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God, praying only for knowledge of His will for us, and power to carry that out.

"Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly."

- Colossians 3:16

12. Having had a spiritual experience as the result of these steps, we try to carry this message to others and practice these principles in all our affairs.

"Brothers, if someone is caught in a sin, you who are spiritual should restore them gently. But watch yourself, or you also may be tempted."

- Galatians 6:1

Serenity Prayer

God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change;
courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference.

Living one day at a time; Enjoying one moment at a time; Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace;

Taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world
as it is, not as I would have it;
Trusting that You will make all things right if I surrender to Your Will;
That I may be reasonably happy in this life
and supremely happy with You forever in the next.

Amen.
